Job Offer

Title: Amateur chef for culinary workshops

The Kitchen Brigades is a culinary workshop program offered in nearly 200 high schools across Canada. The amateur chef teaches students basic cooking techniques and the principles of healthy eating, in a dynamic and educational way from the educational material provided. For the 2021-2022 edition of the program, we're looking for amateur chefs with a passion for cooking and excellent communication skills who want to pass on the joy of cooking to youth!

Regions and cities available: Estrie: Richmond. Laurentides: Sainte-Agathe-des-Monts

Qualifications and requirements:

- Be passionate about food and cooking.
- Be comfortable leading a group.
- Be comfortable with adolescent (12-17 years old).
- Be autonomous, organized and responsible.

Tasks:

- Lead a 2-hour cooking workshop every week.
- Teach students basic cooking techniques, support them in the cooking of recipes.
- Read the workshop content and prepare well.
- Establish an effective collaboration with the affiliated grocer.
- Buy food for the workshops.
- Coordinate, in collaboration with the school, various culinary challenges.
- Perform other related administrative tasks (invoicing, evaluation questionnaires, etc.).

Important to know:

- The program is turnkey, no creation of recipe or content is necessary.
- A refresher course will be provided to refresh your knowledge and properly prepare you to run the workshops.
- Remuneration is fixed and is $ 90 per workshop. Training and other meetings associated with the program are also remunerated.
- Workload is estimated at around 4 hours per workshop week.
- The 24 weekly workshops are generally given from October to April. The amateur chef must be present at all workshops.
- The workshop day is the same each week and will be determined according to your schedule and that of the school (usually Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday in the late afternoon, after school hours).
- A criminal background check will be conducted due to the nature of the position which requires regular contact with minors.
